Why ThinkFood Live?

In these uncertain times Australians are increasing their expenditure on groceries.

Beyond the standard pantry items, consumers are exploring new tastes and retailers are searching for the latest products to drive basket value.

With an increased demand comes the need for innovation. That is where ThinkFood, and your business, comes into play.

Be at the epicentre of a 360-product solution, where your business is placed amongst professionals looking for trusted suppliers to help bring their products to life.

Who will you meet?

At ThinkFood you can expect to meet with some of the brightest minds in manufacturing and product development from the industry's leading food companies.

This includes:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT MANAGERS | TECHNICAL BUYERS |
| OPERATIONS | PRODUCT & BRAND MANAGERS |
| Q&A MANAGERS | DESIGN PROFESSIONALS |
| NPD MANAGERS | PURCHASING MANAGERS |

A modern exhibition space

ThinkFood Live features both a dedicated exhibition floor and accompanying conference.

Visitors will have the opportunity to explore complete 360 product solutions on the show floor and hear the latest research and insights from experts in food innovation during daily content streams.

Taking place across two days at Carriageworks in Sydney, this modern exhibition space reflects the diversity and innovation that comes from our thriving food industry.
